'TAKING PARLIAMENT TO THE PEOPLE' FOLLOW-UP VISIT TO SEKHUKHUNE DISTRICT MUNICIPALITY

The National Council of Provinces (NCOP) will, from Sunday August 22 till Wednesday 25, be in the Sekhukhune District Municipality as part of its Taking Parliament to The People programme.

As you would recall, the NCOP had staged its Taking Parliament to the People programme from 23-26 March 2010 in the Greater Tubatse Local Municipality. On occasion of that visit, members of the community had raised a number of service delivery issues they expected the government to address.

The purpose of the NCOP follow-up visit is to assess the progress made by government in terms of implementing various commitments on service delivery issues raised by members of the community.

Details of the programme are as follows:

Date	Time	Activity	Venue
Monday, 23 August 2010	08h30	Briefing by NCOP delegation on the purpose and objective of the visit	Tubatse Local Municipality
	09h00-12h00	Site visit and meeting at the Mines in Tubatse	Atok Mine, Monametse village
	12h00-17h00	Site visit	Phokathabe Platinum Mines and Two Rivers Mine
Tuesday, 24 August 2010	08h30-10h30	Site visit	Tswelopele Agricultural Cooperative
	11h00-13h00	Site visit	Mabodibeng Dairy,
	14h00-17h00	Inspections at schools	Mogale wa Bagale Technical School,

			Taung High School, Kweledi Secondary School
Wednesday, 25 August 2010	08h30-11h30	Site visit	Penge Clinic and Boshoff Health Centre
	12h00-13h00	De-briefing session on the engagements of the three days	Tubatse Local Municipality

Media are invited to attend!
